

Anuttaram'25 — Official Rulebook

1. Introduction This website hosts Anuttaram'25 (organized by Government Engineering College, Sheohar). These rules apply to all events, tournaments, and activities conducted through the website. By registering and participating, participants/teams acknowledge that they have read, understood, and agreed to these rules.

2. Eligibility Eligibility criteria, including minimum age or educational/institutional requirements, will be clearly stated on each event page. College-specific events require verification; only eligible participants from the specified college/department can register. Organizers reserve the right to verify eligibility at any time and disqualify ineligible participants.

3. Registration All participants must register through the official website form. Registration is considered complete only after submission of required documents and payment (if applicable). Registration fees are generally non-refundable, unless otherwise stated in the event page. Team events: Team size limits, captain information, and contact details must be provided. Any changes to team composition must follow the stated deadline.

4. Event Format & Rules Note: Each event/tournament may have its own specific rules, scoring system, and timings. General points are listed below; event-specific rules will be provided on the event page. Schedule: Participants must adhere to scheduled match/round timings. Delays may result in penalties or disqualification. Format: Single/double elimination, league/pool, or knockout formats will be specified for each event. Scoring: Points, tie-breakers, and other rules will be detailed on the event page. Equipment/Software: Only approved hardware or software should be used. A list will be provided on the event page. Round-specific instructions: Qualification, semifinals, finals, or special rounds may have additional rules. Timeouts & Breaks: Follow the allowed schedule; excessive delay may affect results.

5. Code of Conduct All participants, spectators, and organizers must behave respectfully. Offensive, abusive, obscene, racist, sexual, or violent behavior is strictly prohibited. Online events: Spamming, trolling, DoS attacks, or any unauthorized interference is forbidden. Any participant found cheating, submitting false documents, or violating rules may be immediately disqualified. Organizers' decisions are final and binding unless a specific appeal process is mentioned.

6. Cheating & Misconduct Cheating in any form (third-party assistance, unauthorized scripts, collusion, etc.) is strictly prohibited. Organizers may investigate suspected cheating; participants must cooperate. Violations may result in forfeiture of prizes, disqualification from current and future events, or legal action.

7. Prizes & Distribution Prize amounts and items will be announced on the event page. Verification of identity and bank/UPI details is required for prize distribution. Taxes or deductions, if any, are the responsibility of the participant unless otherwise stated. If winners are found violating rules, prizes may be revoked.

8. Payments & Refunds Registration fees (if applicable) must be paid as per the event page instructions. Payments are generally non-refundable unless otherwise specified. In case of technical issues or duplicate payments, contact organizers immediately. Resolution will be at the discretion of organizers.

9. Cancellation & Rescheduling Organizers may cancel or reschedule events due to weather, security, technical, or unavoidable circumstances. Participants will be informed via website, email, or SMS. Refunds, if any, will follow the applicable refund policy.

10. Privacy & Data Personal information (name, email, phone, college) will only be used for event management, communication, and verification. Participant data will not be shared with third parties without consent, except as legally required. Participants should read and accept the website's full Privacy Policy.

11. Intellectual Property Any content submitted (designs, code, or creative work) may be used by organizers for promotional purposes with prior consent. Participants must ensure their submissions do not infringe third-party copyright or trademarks. Violations are the responsibility of the participant.

12. Health, Safety & Liability Participants are responsible for following health and safety instructions during on-site events. Organizers are not liable for any accidents or injuries unless legally required. For online events, technical issues (network, hardware) are the participant's responsibility unless stated otherwise.

13. Dispute Resolution All disputes must follow the organizer's complaint procedure (via email or designated channels). Primary resolution will be by the organizers; legal recourse, if required, will be through local courts in Sheohar, unless otherwise stated.

14. Amendments Organizers may amend rules at any time without prior notice. Participants agree to accept any future changes upon registration.

15. Contact For queries, complaints, or support: Email: anuttaram@govtengsheohar.edu.in (example email; replace with actual) Website Contact Form: [Contact Us] Helpline: +91-XXXXXXXXXX (if applicable)

16. Agreement & Waiver By registering, I (participant/team) confirm that I have read and understood these rules and agree to abide by them. I accept that the organizers are released from any claims or liabilities where applicable.
